"YE MUST BE BORN AGAIN"

From this glorious text of John 3:7 we are not going to discuss the personal application of the "Ye", nor the absolute necessity for regeneration as declared in the "must", nor yet the fact that the hristi is made and does not make the new creation (as implied in the "be"), nor yet the fact that spiritual birth is as much a change in one's life as was the natural birth (as set out by the word again"; but rather we are going to discuss one of the analogies between the bodily life and the spiritual life, as suggested by our Lord's calling salvation a being "born".

Of the many likenesses between the bodily and the spiritual life, we shall consider only this: proper health comes to both in the same way. Foundationally, the good health of your body depends on food and exercise; the same is true of your spirit.

With an insufficient quantity of food your body becomes thin, emaciated; this will happen in your spiritual life if you fail to feed on the one who said, "I am the bread of life". Eating an unbalanced diet may bring diabetes, pellagra, scurvy, rickets; holding to one line of Bible truth to the exclusion of all others may result in spiritual malnutrition and deformity. The way of insuring...

SOCIAL SQUIRES

Arnes came across the river on Monday to help get the dormitory in shape for the opening of school.

Ben is working in a restaurant in Topeka, swelling his pockets with what it takes to get home. He wires he is bringing a prospective student back with him. That's a good idea to follow.

Ralph was elected Clerk and Treasurer of the Tennessee Valley Baptist Association at their meeting at Sale Creek last Friday and he preached the sermon at the closing meeting of the two-day session.

Ralph has been helping in a Union revival meeting at Graysville. A former student, David Denton is pastor of the Methodist Church there and is doing the preaching.

Minnie and Mable are rooming together at Cedar Hill.

Willie was called home due to the sickness of his father, who died last week.

The McKarrys were called to Jefferson City Thursday by the sudden death of Mary Hutton, a childhood friend of Emily. Mary had been a recent visitor at the Octagon.

Cyclone created quite a sensation in town Saturday when he carried Miss Yancey, Mr. Stewart, Becky, Minnie, Mable, and the Dean to Crystal Lake for a swim. Boy, what diving! Some of them had as much difficulty getting through a tube as the proverbial New Yorker has getting into a subway car.

Leaving Mountain Lake Park on the 24th, the Fishes narrowly missed seeing Ralph at Poo Alex andria on their way to Kane. Bad tires kept them up all night, and they arrived at Kane early in the morning. Tsh, tsh! Situation. You ought to do better than that.

During the Dean's absence, Rebecca "Bulged" around.

Mr. James Stewart, of Lexington, Ky., visited the University on Saturday.

New signs have been painted to guide folks to the campus. And a new sign hangs over the entrance to the Octagon.

WALKERS VISIT BRYAN

Rev. and Mrs. W. H. Walker, of Warfield, Ky., were guests at Cedar Hill Tuesday night and Wednesday night. With them was Miss Davenport, who returned this week to be a student.

On Wednesday evening they were guests of honor at a picnic at Johnson Bluff.

ATTENTION!

Please let us know as soon as possible when you expect to arrive in Dayton. This is very important. LET US KNOW, PLEASE.

ACCORDING TO JIM

Our problem still seems to be the centralization of Bryan activities. In other words, we are not yet located on Bryan Hill—moved this summer towards that end. Getting on the hill is a noble goal—a goal worth working for.

CONFERENCE STAFF

Dr. John J. VanGorder, Pastor of the First Baptist Church, Newürnberg, Pa., is well known for his interesting and helpful talks on charts of his own making, some of which are twenty or more feet in length and seven feet in height.

Dr. Alexander Kuldell is a man of wide experience in work among his own people, the Hebrews. Dr. Kuldell may be found elsewhere in this issue.

Dr. F. L. Brooks, Jacksonville, Fla., needs no introduction.

These are the words of Jesus as recorded in the Gospel of Matthew (6:33): "But seek first his kingdom and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well. Therefore do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will worry about itself. Each day has enough trouble of its own."
